“ I was fortunate enough to know Fred through his daughter Missy who I met in Girl Scouts. Fred or Mr. Feather was an ever present father figure at all of our functions. He taught us how to set up a proper camp, make campfires, and about a billion other little things. He was a wonderful man and will be missed by many. Sending all my love and prayers to the whole family.

“ Cindy and family: It is bittersweet to know that Fred has passed on to his eternal rest. To know that he is with his Lord and Savior makes those left behind look forward to that glorious reunion one day. May God watch over you and keep you and make His light of love to shine upon you in this journey.

Love and Prayers
