

James Earl Hallmark Jr.

November 20, 1945 - June 11, 2016

James Earl Hallmark, Jr. 70, passed away in Webb City, Missouri, James was born in Owensboro, KY to James Earl Hallmark Sr. and Olegla Hulseley Hallmark. James was a Tool and Dye Maker for the whirlpool corporation for 21 years. He was a member of the Forest Park Baptist Church of Carthage. James is survived by two sons Jeff Hallmark and wife Tina of Carthage, Jason Hallmark of Denver, one granddaughter Jovalina Hallmark, and a good friend Linda Minardi of Carthage. One sister Dianne Fulkerson and one brother Hugh Hallmark both of Owensboro, KY. The body has been taken for cremation and a private family service will be held in Owensboro, KY at a later date. Online condolences can be made at <http://www.ulmerfh.com>. Arrangements are under the direction of Ulmer Funeral Home.

Comments

“ I remember your dad well. When you all use to come to Curdsville to visit your Grandparents . My mom still lives beside her house. She want you to know you have our families deepest sympathy. He was a kind man.

Kim Donahue Murphy - June 18, 2016 at 09:09 AM