“ I just got to know Lew over the last couple years, and started taking my sons and myself to him for haircuts. He was a great conversationalist and just a great person all around. I am so sad to no longer see him, and I know the family must be grieving. Thank you Lew for your service to our country, and also to the Carthage community. Condolences to the family for your loss.

“ My deepest sympathies to the family. Although it's been years, I grew up with 'Buster' and will always remember him as Opal Faye's little brother, whom she adored. So sad to hear this. My prayers are with you.

“ It's a sad day when you lose your barber of nearly 12 years. Lew was a wonderful who loved cutting hair and knew everyone who came in there and greeted them openly. Lew followed my life for all the years and still knew what was going on when I'd see him during breaks from college. A true honest mad rest easy Lew.
