“ Mr. Ross always tolerated us ridiculous giggling girls around the house. I always remember his kind eyes and words. Sending much love to all of the family, especially to Donya and Miss Pam.

“ Pam,
So sorry for your loss. These times always come too soon.

I'm confident there is quite the reunion happening between the four brothers and one day, we will all be together again.

Know that thoughts and prayers are with you and your family even while health issues will keep me from being able to attend the service.

“ My first time ever being on a golf course or driving a golf cart was with Uncle Phil. I was around 8 years old. He and Danny were playing and invited me along to watch :)

My first time ever hunting was with Uncle Phil. Around 8 years old too I think. We hunted rabbits. He taught me to never shoot one unless it was running...he said it was good sportsmanship to give them a chance rather than shooting them as they stood still.

From when I was young to being an adult every time I walked in to my Aunt and Uncle's house Uncle Phil would say 'come over here and give me some lovin'.

I will never forget you Uncle Phil :(
