“ Ron was a good man and one of the best story-tellers I have ever known. He had a big, booming voice and an even bigger heart.

I love you and I miss you, Pop. But I know we will see you again.

Love,

David

“ I am so thankful to have been called your little sis. I think back of the times together, and they makes me smile.you were strong willed, just like you dad and you did it you way. I am forever grateful to have had the last days with you , they will be treasures of mine forever. You will be missed beyond words. But we know you are in a better place, your gone and you are with those that you missed. I love you very much. Torey,Baily and Byron sends there love. we will see each other again one day.Love you with all my Bonnie. PS I took alot of video so we can talk about it those when we meet again.

“ In thinking back on Uncle Ronnie's life this past weekend, knowing he was near the end, it struck me how he was always cheerful and happy. Every family gathering we had - the Christmases, the family reunions, Grandma's birthday get togethers - he was always there, and always with a smile and a light-hearted tease. He always wanted his hug, and I gladly gave him one. I will miss seeing his smile and hearing his familiar voice telling a new story. I will miss you, Uncle Ronnie.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Howerton family today. I had the privilege to work with Ron at Schreiber Foods for many years. He was a hard worker and team player. He was always willing to help out others and done it with a smile on his face. We lost a great guy but heaven gained one.

“ He always had a story to tell and it cracked me up listening to him and Donna argue back and forth on the way it really was. He was a great man and will be truly missed. Prayers and love to all of you
