“ So sorry to read about Alan's death. We graduated high school together. Alan had a poetic spirit about him and he must have led a life of generosity and grace, as he had those qualities intrinsically. Condolences to his friends and family in Carthage. Sincerely,
Marilyn Finley

“ Alan was a true and absolutely loyal friend. He would give a friend in need everything he had, without question or expectation. I will deeply miss his creative intellect, and the way he could connect dots most of us do not even see.
