

Andrew Johnson

March 11, 1980 - January 4, 2013

Andrew Johnson, 32, of Carthage passed away at 12:01 a.m. Friday January 4, 2013. Andrew was born March 11, 1980 in Tempe, Az. He had lived in Carthage for the past 15 years. Andrew was a welder at P.S.I. of Carthage. He was a member of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints of Carthage. Andrew is survived by his daughter Sierrah Johnson of Carthage, his mother and step-father, Barbara and Asa McSloy of Carthage, father and step-mother Steven and Vicki Johnson of Taylor, Az, three brothers, Rusty Johnson of Taylor, Az, Todd Johnson of Springville, Utah and Luke McSloy of Carthage, four step-brothers, Brian Petersen, Brendon Petersen, Christopher Peterson and Jacob Peterson all of Taylor, Az., two sisters, Heather Workes of Carthage and Lisa Hansen of Kearny, Az., paternal grandparents Peggy & Jack Johnson, with Jack preceding him in death, step paternal grandparents, James and Ila McSloy of Heber, Az., maternal grandparents, Cliff and Noreen Johnson, with Noreen preceding him in death, and Cliff and Arvella Johnson of Carthage. Services will be 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Carthage. Visitation will be at 9:00 a.m. Tuesday prior to services at the church. Burial will be in Emmanuel Cemetery, south of Carthage. Contributions may be made to "Andrew Johnson" Memorial Fund for his daughter, Sierrah's, education through Southwest Missouri Bank(SMB).

Tribute Wall

BB

“ We are sorry for your lose. words can not express how you are feeling, but know if you need anything we are here for all of you. Andy was a great guy to be around and all my kids really had fun when he was around everyone was always smiling. So sorry
Love the Bloomers

Brandy Bloomer - January 07, 2013 at 09:45 AM

PD

“ So sorry for your loss. May god bless your family.
PAT DYER

pat dyer - January 07, 2013 at 08:20 AM

BF

“ My prayers go out to the family. he was a great person

Billy Farmer - January 07, 2013 at 12:48 AM