“ I only learned of your passing this week. We had so many good times going back and forth to training for the Treatment Center, the days for us to work together were too short, but your is a great place and I'm here trying to recover from the abuse I sustained. You will always be another one of my kids. Love always, Jane

“ My dearest wife, my bestest friend,
In all our years together, including the ones when our friendship was just budding you longed to see my full range of emotions but, who could cry with such laughter and love? Well babycakes, the day you left this life for the next, your dear mother bore witness to a flood of tears that was your love. Today, seeing all the different "walks of life" you've touched, proves the enormous accomplishment of your love! May we all learn from, and cherish you! We love your love for us all!
Your boys, Michael, Nicholas and Michael J.

“ Anna, you were my friend. You were one of my biggest customers, and most of all, you were my drive and inspiration to move on with my business without losing my mind. I will miss our talks, your never ending support, posts, and soul. You will never be forgotten, and I will listen to Amy Lee for you and send her voice to the heavens for you. Love you always Angel! “ We were saddened to read the obituary today for Anna. As her great aunt I remember her as a beautiful child and last seeing her as a young woman. We wish to send prayerful condolences to her family and pray God will give Michael and other family members the strength and comfort to carry on during these difficult days.

“ Anna will be greatly missed by her Division of Youth Services family. She was such a positive person who wanted to make the world a better place, no doubt that was her vision based on several conversations I've had with her over the years.

Anna also spoke often of her two boys, husband, and parents. May you all be blessed with memories and may you be comforted by strength.

Respectfully, Trich Long

“ I am so saddened to hear of Anna's passing. I went to school with her in Diamond for years. She was a great woman with an amazing personality. And her spiritual outlook on life was the most awesome thing I have ever seen in anyone. She will be missed and she is an angel looking down on us all.
