“ Worked for many years with Tony at Consumers. And Tony was a frequent guest in our home. Sharing many laughs. Driving his Maverick over Oak St bridge to see if we could get it airborne...which of course we did. Tony would laugh and laugh. If you knew him, you know the laugh. We'll miss ya buddy.

Tony lived one street behind us on Wendy Lane. We both graduated in the CSHS Class of 1974. He was a good person, and will be missed.
