“ My sincere condolences to the Jump Family. Barbara Jo was my dearest cousin and even though we have lived far apart for many years now, I will miss knowing I can at least pick up the phone to say Hello to her. Barbara had an infectious laugh that made it a joy to be with her. I stayed with her and Clyde and Esther in West Covina. I loved those days with Barbara, knowing when I drove my car drive up to the house it would be so relaxing to see her again. When we were kids together we loved to dance and pose like the movie stars we saw in the movies! I will miss her and hope she finds peace now.
