“ So sorry to hear of Barry's passing. He was fun to hang out with when we were in High School. Barry shared a lot of his albums with my sister and me. He introduced us to Frank Zappa, Starz, Aerosmith and Nazareth. Rock on Barry!

“ I remember playing sandpit football in the backyard with him. It would usually take 3 of us littler guys to tackle him as he was tall back then.

“ I am deeply saddened at the loss of my friend, neighbor and classmate, Barry. I grew up next-door to Barry and his brother Mark and have many fond memories of our neighborhood shenanigans. There were several of us, Diane, Julie and Mike down the street and mutual friends who stopped by to join in the fun, such as my cousin Greg, Dytri, Nancy and others. We had lots of fun playing hide and seek, pretending in their playhouse, sledding in the snow, racing around the block on our bikes and waiting for that all important ice cream man to come down the street. To top it all off I was very close to their mother, Billie. I always called her my second mom and came to visit her annually up until she went on to be with the Lord. She had a great impact on my life, and after my mother passed away, was my connection to my childhood years. I haven't seen Barry in many years but we reconnected on Facebook and enjoyed sharing memories and pictures. I loved his sense of nostalgia and how he had preserved so much of the history of Carthage in his books. I am so thankful that I knew him. My prayers are with the family and I'll never forget my friend Barry.

“ I remember the many family cookouts, campouts, and dinners as we all grew up in Carthage. I had the opportunity to purchase one of Barry's books and visit about old times a few years ago. Barry will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Duncan Family.

“ I met Debbie and Barry within the last 10 years, as Debbie is a huge James Taylor fan, and Barry was just a great husband! He'd take her, no complaints, softspoken, sweet as gold. He was always so kind to me, and I know he will be greatly missed. Sending love to the family.

“ Such a good guy! We both played clarinet in band and sat beside each other in H.S. band with Mr. Stanfield as band director. I remember him as a good basketball player also, running up and down the court with Richard Campbell. Now they both are gone too soon. Praying for the family.
