“ Jane, Barbara, and Ben: How sorry I was to hear of Ben's passing. He was such a tireless worker in every aspect of his life. I remember how much work he would do for The Kingdom through not only First Baptist Church, but the Christian community in general. You know very well he heard His Lord and Savior tell him, "Well done thy good and faithful servant". I know you will miss him so much you can hardly stand it. But as you know, he is home and young again, will never be in pain, and for first time got to see the very One he has been serving all of his life. I will be praying for you as you go through this tough time in your life. God bless you and your entire family. Tom (Tommmmy) Hilton
