“ Betty Weaver was my PE teacher at Edgewood High for my last two years of high school. My best friend, Linda and I were in her class when we were seniors we thought it would be fun to call her Betty rather than Mrs Weaver. She tried to keep a straight face every time we did that but you could see her eyes laughing. She was great fun and I remember those days so we’ll some 55 years ago. RIP, “Betty”. You were definitely one of my favorites. Susie Trimble-Brusby

“You’re Ok.” Those are the words Coach Weaver said to me. Those are the words that gave me confidence. Those are the words that made me the woman I am today. Coach saw ME...Coach pulled the best out of ME! Coach was THE person who accepted ME and loved ME unconditionally. She encouraged me to be courageous, fearless and authentic. I’m happy to say, I live by her advice each and every day. There are no words to express the heartache I’m feeling. God Bless you Coach – Betty Weaver. Heaven just gained a beautiful Angel. I love you always.

“ My favorite memory of my former PE teacher happened in 1963 or 1964. In those days you had to dress in gym clothes for PE then shower afterwards and change back into school clothes. One day I decided it would be cool to throw a dirty gym sock in Mrs. Weaver’s face. The next day when I opened my gym locker to get my gym clothes, they were gone! I told Mrs. Weaver my clothes were missing. She “just happened” to find them in the freezer of the dressing room’s refrigerator! Brrrrrr!

Made me love her even more!
