“ So sorry to hear of Beverly’s passing! She was a wonderful friend for many years! I never saw her that she didn’t have a smile! She was a lovely lady inside and out! Heaven gained another angel!

“ I lived down the street from Bev and Gary for years, but she was the one who finally grabbed me as I walked by with my dogs and introduced herself. I was so glad she did. She was such a kind, funny and feisty lady! She is missed on our street and in our hearts.

“ Gary, I am so sorry to read about Bev’s passing. What a sweet, kind and compassionate lady she was. I will always be thankful for her and you for all the kindness you showed Ronnie and my Mom. Ron’s face just lit up when you visited him. We know she is happy in her heavenly home, but we are still sad to not hear or see her here. Frank is having some surgery so I can’t attend her service. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Our sincere sympathy, Pat and Frank Settle
