“ Bill: It's been years since we've talked but I've never forgotten what a great step-brother you were. I was so sorry to hear of your passing. I will forever remember how kind you always were to me. Rest in Peace. We'll meet again one day. Paula Simpson Tatum Hollister, MO

“ Bill: You and I had some great times as kids exploring the banks of Spring River and just moseying around Carthage, walking for miles and taking in the scenery. We were good at moseying. We were like brothers. And in fact we became step-brothers when my mom, Christine, married your dad, Bill. I will never forget your sense of humor, your laughter and your friendship. When you called and told me the doctor said you had three or four years of life left, it broke my heart. But that was 15 years ago -- so you won that race, Bill. This nutty world will miss your good sense, and I will miss your friendship. You're at peace, though, and in no pain. Take care, my friend. I'll see you later. -- Corky Simpson, Tucson, Arizona.
