“ As a child (and even more as an adult!) I loved sitting and listening to the ladies (Bid, Kate, Linda [my mom], Mary Jane, and Janie) in their "group" of friends telling stories of their youth. The stories and the laughter...the crazy escapades! I could listen to them for hours. The wonderful thing is that it carried through with this group through their adult lives, adding crazy new stories and lots more laughter. The friendship of this group grew into a sisterhood where they helped each other face life's challenges as well as having fun. They had the type of friendship all of us would like to share with a group! My thoughts and prayers for peace as you celebrate Bid's life. She will be missed. Love to the whole family!

“ Bid was a very happy person. I love working with her at Mercy McCune Brooks. We always had a good laugh. Bid in the last few years has had a hard time, but with her spirit you would never know what was going on with her. Bid is going to be missed.
