

Catherine E. Harris

May 6, 1933 - May 3, 2010

Catherine Harris, 76 of Carthage, Mo passed away on May 3, 2010 and is now free of the constraints of earth, to enjoy the fruits of heaven. Catherine was born May 6, 1933 to Clifford Brakmeier and Marjorie Moore Brakmeier in Princeton, IN. Catherine will be missed by her five children, Ruby Leek and husband, William Leek of rural Carthage, Dave and wife, Lois Harris of rural Carthage, Bobbie and husband, Nelson Voris of Lamar, Mo., Clifford and wife, Teresa Harris of Princeton, IN., Donald and wife Pam Harris of Owensville, IN. She is also survived by 13 grandchildren, Michael Leek, Kristofer Leek, Joshua Leek, Kristi Mein, Kelsi Ramdeo, Cassie Witt, Michael Ryan Tillman, B.W. Mosley, James Harris, Melissa Jones, Janet Peck, Alicia Winkler and Jacob Harris. All of them will miss Granny and her stories. Additionally, she is survived by 15 great grandchildren who will hopefully have the stories passed on to them. After her childhood in Princeton, IN., she married Bobby M Harris, of Jasper County, Mo., December 9, 1952 in Tampa, FL. Bob and Catherine had a small dairy farm north of Alba, and then east of Carthage. They moved to the Princeton, IN., and area and there they had an upholstery business and excavation company. Bob passed away February 19, 1992. Catherine is also preceded in death by her second husband, Everett Lambeth. Catherine loved her job at Bee Discount, and greatly enjoyed working with the area quilters that Bee Discount catered to. She also did custom sewing for many people in the Carthage area. She loved to make drapes and bedspreads. She also did custom work for the Sport Shop, stitching letters on jackets for the Carthage school district athletes. She traveled in the last few years and greatly enjoyed Arizona. Services will be at 2:00 p.m., Thursday, May 6, 2010 at the Ulmer Funeral Home Chapel. Interment will be in Dudman Springs Cemetery, Carthage. Arrangements are under the direction of Ulmer Funeral Home.