Cheryl and I lived "down the street" from each other in the 1950's. I was at 522 Wooster and she was just a few houses down on Forrest. I was younger (b 1947) and I have little memory of those times.

I remember she had an older brother and it seems her mother and one of her brothers were red-headed. I moved over to West Centennial and have no memory of Cheryl the following years.. Those were the days....I do have a memory of her mother yelling for her and their screen door slamming like all of them around town.

Her mother went through some rough times but everyone admired her for keeping a stiff upper lip and keeping the family going.

“ Cheryl was my beloved childhood friend. We played together, rode horses, went swimming, walked everywhere, went to the same Church, and double dated as teenagers. Cheryl was very pretty, intelligent, witty and had a great sense of humor. She had four beautiful daughters she loved above all. Her girls loved their Mom and helped her as much as they could. I've missed her friendship these last years, when she became incapacitated with the cruel disease that robbed her of her wonderful mind. But, Cheryl was a lifelong Christian and there is no doubt in my mind that my dear friend is in that beautiful new world, Heaven, where she was greeted by Jesus and her loved ones already there. Praise The Lord who has given her eternal life and victory over sickness and death, forever! I look forward to meeting her there someday.
