“ Patti, Steve, Cassandra, Caryn & family - my sincerest condolences to you and yours. Christopher was truly one of a kind. He had so much charisma. He was beyond passionate about the things that he did and the people that he loved. He truly lived life like there was no tomorrow. He fought his battles and fought them head on. He hated negativity and he tried his best to always see the positive light in whatever darkness he faced. He always strived to be the best in all that he did and his determination was matched by no other. I loved your son and brother unconditionally. He will always hold a place in my heart. I wish you and your family true healing and serenity. My love and respect are always with you.

“ Steve.... Patti.... and the rest of your family. It's devastating to hear this news. I can only try to imagine what all of you are going through and I pray that you find peace. I have many fond memories of all of you especially Chris as a young man on the football field. My career as a coach followed him from youth to high school and he contributed to who I am today. I treasure that beyond what you may imagine.
