“ You all have my sincere sympathies. Dana was a great woman of God. We had a little group at OKC called Faith Builders where we shared the Bible and prayer requests. She was on our email list even after she moved to Carthage. Even though the past couple years we only communicated by email I will miss her..... Kathy Shirey

“ Tim and family -

I am sorry for your loss. Dana "cubed" by me for a number of years here in OKC. We shared some common bonds - praying for each others' family during whatever crisis was currently going on. Dana was a great prayer warrior as my wife Margie ventured thru her cancer treatments. Her spirit and compassion were just a few of her better qualities. She will be missed by many of us here in OKC.

Prayers to you and all of the family during this difficult time. Rest assured Dana is still holding all of you dear in her heart and will continue to do so until one day when you are reunited in Heaven.

“ Dana was a good Christian woman who was not afraid to profess her love for Jesus Christ. She was a great comfort to me on many occasions. It saddens me at the loss of one so caring, but I know Jesus had plans for her. She's no longer suffering and is rejoicing in heaven. I'm just sorry I can't be there for you, her family. Glenna
