“ Clara, Darrel J and Dale Steve and I are so sorry for your loss. Darrel was such an exceptional God loving man who lived by example. He has always been incredibly kind to me and welcomed my husband to the fold very comfortably. We cherish all of our moments together. Darrel was humble, thoughtful and kind to all he met. If he thought you was wrong though he wouldn't hesitate to let you know either but with grace. An exceptional Pastor and friend and I am so glad to have known him. Cherish all your memories because his love and sense of pride towards all of you was always very apparent. God's peace and comfort be with you all.

Love,

Lynn

“ Darrel was an exceptional man. He was humble, fair and kind. A loving husband, Pastor and father and especially a true friend that Steve and I both felt so blessed to know. His love for the Lord was ever present in the way he lived life. Clara, near or far we hold you so fondly and we are grateful to have shared great memories with you both.
