

Dennis Norman Love

July 28, 1950 - May 18, 2010

Dennis Norman Love, 59, of Joplin went to be with the Lord on May 18, 2010 following a courageous battle with cancer. He was born on July 28, 1950, in Springfield, MO. Dennis was a 1968 graduate of Carthage High School, where he excelled in sports. He worked for Safeway and Consumer's Grocery in Carthage until enlisting in the United States Air Force from November 1971 until June 1973. Dennis attended MSSC, graduating in 1980 with a business degree in Marketing & Management. He worked for Cardinal Scale for 15 years as a customer service representative. Dennis then became a regional sales representative for Emory Winslow Scale Company. He was employed as a salesman for Deskin Scale Company at the time of his death. Dennis was an avid sports fan. He was a member of Loma Linda Golf Club, where he could be found most weekends with his golf buddies. Dennis also enjoyed fishing with his family.

Survivors include Vickie and Treyson Morey, of the home; his mother, Vivian Love of Carthage; one stepdaughter, Ashley Moore and husband Scott of Joplin; two stepsons, Chris Mitchell and wife Cristy of Carl Junction, and Tim Mitchell of Kansas City, MO.; one brother Kevin Love and wife Marilyn of Kansas City, MO.; extended family includes Carolyn Burgess and husband Jeff of Joplin; Sheree Howerton of Carthage; Jennean and Jim Werner of Linn Creek, MO.; Leon and Connie Maxson of Creston, Iowa; four step grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Dennis was preceded in death by his father, Harry Love.

Graveside services will be held at 10:00 a.m., Saturday, May 22, 2010 at the Diamond Cemetery, Diamond, MO., with Pastor Ron Crow Officiating. The Casket will be closed. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Dennis' memory to Camp Quality or the Make a Wish Foundation in Care of Ulmer Funeral Home. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Ulmer Funeral Home.
