

Dorcas Anna Crum

October 22, 1939 - August 31, 2011

Dorcas Anna Crum, 71, of Carthage passed away at 5:25 p.m. Wednesday, August 31, 2011 at Freeman West Hospital. Dorcas was born October 22, 1939 in Stella, Missouri. She was the daughter of John Youngblood and Electia "Smith" Youngblood. Dorcas was a homemaker most of her life. She had worked at Fair Acres, did some housekeeping and owned and operated a doll store in Sarcoxie with her sister. Dorcas loved to make dolls, do crafts, sew and crochet. Dorcas is survived by one son, John Crum and wife Debra of Bentonville, Ark., and one daughter, Tina Henson of LaRussell, MO, one brother, Fred Youngblood of Jasper, 5 grandchildren, Samantha Chapman, Stephenee Crum, Sean Crum, Crystal Lambeth and Teresa Palumbo and 8 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by one son, Danny Myers in May 2011, two brothers, Ray Youngblood and Jack Youngblood and two sisters, Judy Garrison and Treva Rausa. Memorial services will be 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, September 7, 2011 at the Ulmer Funeral Home. The body has been taken for cremation. Arrangements are under the direction of the Ulmer Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

SC

“ I miss you so much grandma, I've been thinking about you so much lately.
I love you and miss you so much, I hope I get to see you soon.
I love you.

Stephenee Crum - January 09, 2015 at 01:27 AM

AH

“ I meant to send my condolence message to Tina -- Crystal & Teresa. Sorry.

April Hurst - September 07, 2011 at 10:32 AM

DH

“ An amazing woman. We have missed her over the past few years. The beautiful quilt she made me is one of my prized possessions. We know she is up there havin' a cold one and enjoyin a laugh and conversation with those she loves.

David and April Hurst - September 07, 2011 at 09:57 AM

CL

“ My grandma was awesome! You couldnt have asked for a cooler one. My friends and most people that knew her loved her. I love you grandma!!

crystal lambeth - September 03, 2011 at 10:45 AM