“ Happy Mother's Day Grandma! Just wanted to let you know how much I love you and how much I miss you! Exciting news...I think I've just about kicked my nail biting habit. They're growing out and look strangely like yours. We might have the same hands. Mallory brought Bubba out to the cememtary to see you a week ago. He had a fresh hair cut and Mallory was trying real hard to keep him for doing his business anywhere. I thought you'd get a kick out of that. The Cardinals are doing pretty well. We're up by a game and a half in the division. Keep your eye on the Redbirds for me. I think of you everyday. I feel you with me. I love you so much.

“ To my Grandmother, Even now, more than a year after you've left, I miss you with the depth I knew I would. I miss your laugh and the peace that came to me in your presence. I miss your unconditional love and the way you cared for our family. I miss the letters you sent and the simplicity of going to visit Grandma. Mom misses you. She misses you so very much. You were her best friend. I dreamt of you shortly after you left. You came to me and told me you were alright and that you were happy. Thank you. Thank you for being in my life. Thank you for my father. Thank you for the lessons that you've taught me that I will carry on to my children. Oh and Grandma, I've met a boy. I met THE boy. And you would love him. He treats me like a queen and he's not too bad on the eyes either. I met him just like you said I would and I love him with my whole heart. I miss you everyday. All my love, Michelle
