“Earlene took wonderful care of Ted and was a great companion to him, in my observations. We are just sorry she did not get to enjoy her new home longer. Our condolences and sympathy to all of the family, both Ted's and her own. In years past, in the Petite department at Famous-Barr, she often helped me in a way one does not often see anymore. She knew how to present herself to the public and be of real assistance. We had also been acquainted in the same way when she worked in a Carthage store. Bless her heart! I often had good visits with Ted and Earlene in our doctor's waiting room and when we sent to see Ted in St. Luke's. Fondly,
Jacqui and Elliott Potter
