“ I am so sorry to learn of the passing of this wonderful lady, "Liz". She always had a beautiful smile and an encouraging attitude. She loved her family and kept her faith in God. She was also a great cook that made and served cinnamon rolls hot out of the oven that were equaled by no one. This earth has lost a great woman and Mom, however Heaven has gained a beautiful saint. May God bless you and be a comfort to all of you during this difficult time.

“ She was a special lady who made almost everything our daughter and I wore. Enjoyed every minute we spent together. She loved her family and always talked about her times spent with you. Our granddaughter "Elizabeth" was named after her.

“ We extend our deepest sympathy to TK and Amy and the entire family on the passing of Elizabeth. Our lives have been enriched from having known this wonderful lady. May she rest in peace and at this difficult time, may the family take some small measure of comfort from the words on an Irish headstone, "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal; Love leaves a memory no one can steal."

Love,
