“ Shackelford Family: I am sorry for your loss of Etoy. She was a very sweet lady and I have known her 7-8 years. I visited her every evening while she was at St. Luke's in Carthage. She enjoyed cheese pizza and chocolate some of those evenings. Etoy always had a smile and seldom complained. I was honored to have her for a friend. She had the same birthday as my mother who was at Sunny Hills with her for 3 years. I will miss Etoy too. Sincerely, Gail Hurlbut
