“ Aunt Jo,
You were an inspiration in so many ways. I always felt so special when you referred to Sis and me as “my girls.” Rest in peace, sweet lady. I carry you in my heart and memories forever. Love Diane

And I mirror those thoughts and the message from my at sister. Aunt Jo, the middle sister of three fiery, redheads from Missouri, has always been such a classy lady. They all share that along with many other wonderful traits and fierce love for their families. Three women I'm so proud to be connected to in so many ways. Love to all of the family she has cherished ..this is a huge loss. It changes all of us. From one of “my girls.” 🌸🌸🌸

“ Rick and Mike I am sorry to hear about your mom. She always put up with a lot from you boys with a smile. She and my mom can now get caught up and I am sure she will be glad to see your dad

“ Rick and Mike,
I'm sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. I don't remember ever seeing her without a smile! Even when I didn't live next door anymore, I enjoyed our "getting caught up" when we'd run into each other (usually at walmart!). You all are in my thoughts and prayers.
