“ Lisa, My sincerest condolences to you and your family. When you lose your mother, who is a friend also, it is very difficult. The best way is to take it one day at a time ... an hour at a time ... a minute at a time. With time it will get easier, but it will always be difficult. I found, when my mother passed, it was easier on me to immerse myself into my work; it kept my mind occupied. But, everyone handles their grief different. I'm here if you just want to talk. God be with you. Jerri

“ Randy and Lisa:
Leon and I are very sorry to learn of Mrs. Farmer's passing. I know she will be greatly missed. Lisa and I would talk a lot about our parents when we sat across from each other in Human Resources.4
