“ Frank gave to others. You could not visit him without being offered something from his garden, a tour of his latest project, or him offering some kind of food that Ruth had made. Most of all, Frank offered time. He spent hours and hours with kids. Church MYF, 4-H, or some of us random kids that he took under his wing benefited from the time Frank offered. He was so proud of his kids and grandkids! He was the best Christian role model to be found. Much love,

“ I learned so much from Frank as a girl. A lot about horses, a lot about Jesus, and a lot about generosity. Frank and Ruth leave a legacy of kindness and love that will never be forgotten. Love, Marla Mashburn-Cothern
