“ Angela, I am so sorry to hear about your dad. Even though we are aware of the inevitable we are never ready. Whether it be a call in the middle of the night, weeks in the hospital, or years in a nursing home those of us left behind grieve. I'm sure that your dad, as my mother did, knew in his heart that his time on earth was nearing its end. Now they experience eternal life with no pain or suffering and are greeted by loved ones who have gone before. We'll see them all again some day and what a glorious reunion we will have. Thinking of you.
