“ I first met Fred while fishing at the dock at mutton Creek on Stockton lake. Since they closed the dock , a lot of us have missed fishing with him there. He was always there to help others catch fish if they weren't having any luck. He was a great guy and will be sorely missed by all who new him. I am sure he is up in heaven right now catching his limit.

“ My heart is saddened to hear of the passing of cousin Fred. He was such a sweet, loving man. He and my daddy, Jim Maynard, were very close and grew up together as playmates. He always told me whenever we saw each other how much he loved and missed my dad. The last time I saw Fred was 4 years ago at the Maynard family reunion. He and I became "friends" on Facebook after that and shared several thoughts with each other. I loved him and will dearly miss him. My condolences to his family. Much love, Cousin Wendi (Maynard) Jones
