“ My name is Ian Borges. I am just finding out tonight that Gary has passed. I have a very special place in my heart for this man, and who I had presumed to be his wife. I met them at their store in Joplin, MO. He was a man of very strong faith in Christ. Although I am saddened to see more friends go, I know I will see him again. Thank you for the memories in days gone by, I will never forget you.

“ When Gary came into the office, he always made me smile. Whether it was him telling a terrible joke or him singing; he was always making me laugh when he came in. His quick wit and orneriness will be missed. Prayers of peace and comfort for his family.
