“ I don't remember ever meeting Gene in person, but I know many of his kids and family members. If he was anything at all like his family, he was a wonderful man and a good hearted soul.

“ I remember the first time I met Gene and Dorothy in June or July of 1966. They had big smiles and were so nice, seemingly not annoyed by the neighbor kids who had invaded their home. They were just as nice and had the same smiles the last time I saw them. Gene used his time on earth well and will be missed.
