“ I will forever remember Uncle George and my Grandpa sitting in the kitchen giving my Grandma and Aunt Barbara grief! Those two together were the ultimate Grumpier Old Men! I love you Aunt Barbara!

“ Paula and I, her parents, Cecil and Jean Ditch, and Paula's sister Charlotte and husband Bob McFarlin considered George Cherry as way more than co-worker to Cecil, Bullet, and me. I am sure I speak for our little family in describing George as a true friend and dear member of our Globe family.

George was a dedicated and loyal member of his craft as a newspaper compositor, or printer, and an energetic, devoted, and proud employee of the Joplin Globe.

But he also was more than that during his long career in the composing room, where he was the self-appointed keeper of all things lively. He, along with a band of merry men and women that made up the nightside crew, definitely contributed to making the paper a fun place to work. A master of mischief, George Cherry undoubtedly was the prince of printer pranks.

I am sure I also speak for the Globe family in conveying deepest sympathy to Barbara and the rest of her family, and in saying that those of us who worked with George are better for having had that time.

Sincerely,
Michael Stair

“ I had the pleasure of working with George for 10 years at the Globe in the Composing Department. He was truly a joy to work with and so much fun to be around. I loved playing ping-pong with him and Doc and the others. I can say that we ALL Loved it when he brought his meatball sandwiches to work. So many memories that I cherish after all these years. My deepest condolences to the family.
