“ The first time I met Gladys was right before Walter started head start. She taught herself English by watching soap operas on tv. She worked very hard and was so dedicated with everything she did. She was such a beautiful soul. She made many friends here. She will be missed by many. What a friend she was, honest always with a smile even if she didn't feel like smiling. Always ready to help anyone she could. Rest In Peace Gladys . We will never forget you. I was Blessed to know you all these years!
