“ I remember the fun times of catching lightening bugs with my sister Patty, We got a penny a piece when we would let our lightening bugs go free out of our jars, Back then a penny a piece we thought we was rich. Oh the fun times growing up. I loved the beautiful paint job my Dad did on my bike that awesome metallic purple paint job boy it was awesome! And the marvelous cute clothes that Janie made for us and the time she made the Marvelous doll clothes I still have them all to this very day.Love You, Your Daughter Debbie Shrum
