“ I had the pleasure of working with Homer at Cessna. He was the most outstanding Christian person that I have ever known. He not only believed it but he lived it every day of his life. My sincere condolences to Pam and his family. You all can be extremely proud of the example that he set for you and all that had the pleasure of knowing him.

“ Homer Belk was known by all as a man of great integrity. His life of love for God, family and country was something to be admired, and his respect and tenderness toward others was a great example for all to follow. It was such a joy to know Homer and spend time with him. I'll never forget the depth of his love for nature and wildlife on a fishing venture we took together. It was fun watching him catch quite a few large mouth bass, but it was awesome to see how he enjoyed the two American Eagles that soared above us. His knowledge and wisdom will be greatly missed. I pray that our marvelous " God of mercy and Father of all comfort" will be with Pam and the family.
