

Jacqueline Ranay Thomas

May 17, 1960 - October 21, 2010

Jacqueline Ranay Thomas, 50, of Carthage passed away at 12:49 p.m., Thursday, October 21, 2010. Jacqueline was born May 17, 1960 in Fresno, CA. She was the daughter of Jack Wilfong and Patsy Pickering Wilfong. Jacqueline has been a resident of Carthage for the past 15 years, moving here from Texas. She was employed at Lowe's Paint Department and has worked there since their opening in Carthage. Jacqueline attended the Freedom Christian Fellowship Church of Sarcoxie, MO. Jacqueline is survived by one daughter, Tiffany Thomas of Carthage, her mother Patsy Wilfong of Carthage, one brother, Jimmy Wilfong of Pasadena, TX one sister Cindy Rothermel, 3 grandchildren; Cameron Thomas, Dallas Thomas and Alex Cox; nieces and nephews; Christine, Johnny and Megan Rothermel and one great niece, Haley Pace. She was preceded in death by her son, Christian Thomas in 2005 and her father, Jack Wilfong on April 8, 2010. Memorial services will be 6:00 p.m. Monday, October 25, 2010 at Ulmer Funeral Home Chapel. Arrangements are under the direction of the Ulmer Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

MC

“ I worked with Ranay at Carthage Health and Rehab in 2004. She was a sweet lady that I enjoyed working with. She had a great love for family and especially her grandchildren. She will be missed. God called a wonderful woman home.

Megan Johnson Chew - October 26, 2010 at 05:14 PM