“ Having Janey in my life for nearly 35 yrs, leaves me with endless memories of her. She always brought a special light that surrounded her. For many years she referred to her daughter Nancy and I as Max and Sean. She taught us to love with all of our hearts, To be grateful for all things. To laugh live and love and that family was forever first and foremost. Forever she will be missed, although knowing she is Dancing in heaven with her soul mate Wendell helps to know she will continue to smile that glorious smile.
