

Jerry D Sirmans

December 18, 1948 - December 20, 2021

Jerry D. Sirmans, 73, of Carthage, Missouri, passed away on Monday, December 20, 2021 at Freeman West Hospital. Jerry was born in Gilmer, Texas on December 18, 1948 to Willard Sirmans and Virginia "Hall" Sirmans. Jerry was a math teacher in San Antonio, Texas, before moving to Missouri six years ago. He continued teaching for Carthage and Webb City schools, even after retiring. He served his country in the United States Air Force, he was a member of the Carthage Sr. Men's Golf League, and a gentleman cattle rancher.

Jerry is survived by two sons, Jerry Willard Sirmans (Jamie) of Leavenworth, Kansas, and Benjamin Ernest Sirmans (Angela) of Wichita, Kansas; 10 granddaughters, Alex, Cessaly, Phelicia, Makayla, Morgan, Alawna, Lynzie, Kaiden, Chelsea, and Skylar; nine great-grandchildren, Beau, Trey, Lux, Lola, Jett, Colt, Michael, Nathan, and Jaxen; two brothers, Royce Sirmans of Carthage, Missouri and Tony Sirmans of Wichita, Kansas; and one sister, Peggy Withers of Wichita, Kansas.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Willard and Virginia Sirmans; and three sisters, Pat, Ann, and Sandra.

A service is scheduled for Jerry at 10:00 AM on Thursday, December 23, 2021 at the Ulmer Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will be at Resthaven Cemetery in Wichita, Kansas at 1:00 pm on Wednesday, December 29, 2021.

“ Uncle Jerry, your smile was almost as big as your heart. You meant what you said unapologetically and loved the same way. I will miss you but I am blessed by the love and presence you showed our family. See you in eternity. I know you will be waiting with a smile.

“ I wasn't real close to Mr. Sirmans, but he was always cordial to me, and we could talk politics anytime! He was a profound teacher!
Thank you Mr. Sirmans for your grace❤️

“ Jerry served his country in the USAF & his students at Kitty Hawk MS. He made friends easily with his smile, wit & humor. He made me laugh every time I saw him at school. He genuinely cared for his students & their success. Rest in peace, my friend.
