“ A good hard working and honest man.
I am glad I had the privilege to get to know him. He will be missed.
Salt of the earth, much respect, they don't make them like him anymore

“ The last time I talked to him was 2 years ago @ Fullerton Cemetery, he drove by, saw me there, like he had for years & years & I'm so glad that this time he pulled in & we had a chance to catch up, he was so tickled that TQ & I were getting married... Carthage will miss him & so will we !

“ Jimmy we will always remember and be grateful to you for your friendship and generosity when we were young couples running around having a great time together. The dances at the Golden Door, our snowmobiling trip to the freezing cold of Upper Michigan, and to our camping trips to Pineville and your big red boat at Grand Lake. Our card playing and fondness for “old charter”. Many more, but too many to mention. Love you, old friend. Pete and Sue
