“ My Deepest Sympathy to Victor and Family. Kathleen was my Best Friend. We were more like Sisters. We shared tough times and good times, laughs and tears. Even though I moved from Carthage, we stayed close. We talked on the phone and got together for visits when we could. She was such a big part of my life. To say I will miss her is an understatement. She walked on earth as an Earthly Angel, now she walks in Heaven as a Heavenly Angel. She is at Peace. She will Forever be in my Heart. I will always Love her.

“ when we lived in the house off 96, we would go to the back pasture an have a big huge bonfire an cook beans an hot dogs an play music an have everybody around an all the horses would come up to see what was up. She tell me an uncle Ricky an alicia to go out where nobody could see us an make cyot noises am howl to scare her but she was never afraid. One thing I loved about her is she was never scared, she was always brave an one day she told me to mever b afraid, never looked back an always keep ur chin up an help others, an to always b humble an kind. I'm goimg to miss her so deeply. She had a good heart an I love her so much cuz of it.
