“ Dear Sister Terry, John, Stephen, Phil, Mark, Tom, and Joel,
It is never easy to have to say a final goodbye to someone who has been such a constant strength and anchor point in your life. I am so sorry for the emptiness that I know you all must be feeling. We know that our separation is only for what is left of 'time'. Soon, we will all be together with Jesus and those who love Him, forever, never to part again.

With all of the families I have met through my life time, you all remain 'number 1' to me. The good memories we made while growing up as neighbors are such a wonderful source of comfort to me. I think of you all very often, and am so grateful for the impact you had on my life.

I am wishing so much that I could have lived closer and had better contact with all of you, but I guess it was not to be. I am sad, today, to not be there to honor your dad and mom and you guys. Please know that I would be there if it was possible. I will be remembering all of you in prayer. The Holy Spirit brings us such comfort and quickens our mind to help us make the decisions I know you will be dealing with in the weeks and months to come.

Love to you all, Dawn (Reid) and Bob Drake
