

Larry Phillip Coleman

July 2, 1938 - January 13, 2012

Larry Phillip Coleman, passed away in the afternoon on Friday, January 13, 2012 at Mercy Hospital in Joplin, MO. He was born in Carthage, MO on July 2, 1938 to J.D. and Mildred (Ayers) Coleman. Larry was a very kind-hearted man. He did lots of things for many people, especially family members. Larry was a loving Christian. He served proudly in the United States Navy during the 1950's. Larry took basic training in Great Lakes, Illinois. He was stationed in Newport, RI. Larry spent time out at sea aboard the U.S.S. Compton, a Navy Destroyer. He worked for many years at Braeckels Manufacturing in Joplin until they recently closed down. Larry also worked part-time at Tom Moore's Cabinet Shop in Webb City. He was a very skilled cabinet maker. Larry was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Robert Coleman. Survivors include four sons, Jeff Coleman of San Antonio, TX, Matt Coleman of Pigeon Forge, Tenn., Mark Coleman of Oronogo, MO and Brad Coleman of Joplin, MO, two daughters, Cindy Moore of Jasper, MO and Sherry Greninger of Branson, MO, 21 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren, two brothers, Henry Coleman of Webb City and Carl Coleman of Joplin, MO and one sister, Loretta Carpenter of Webb City, MO. Graveside services will be 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, January 17, 2012 at Carterville Cemetery in Carterville. Visitation will be 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. Monday, January 16, 2012 at the Ulmer Funeral Home, Carthage. On line condolences may be made at www.ulmerfh.com. Arrangements are under the direction of the Ulmer Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

TB

“ We wish to extend our sympathies to Cindy and family.

---

Tom and Glenna Broadway - January 16, 2012 at 01:22 PM