“ May the God of all Comfort, be with Larry's family in this time of remembrance for my very special nephew. Praying for there to be a Great Reunion in Heaven for our Ford Family some day. I have so many precious memories of Larry Wayne and my sons growing up together in Carthage. I will always treasure them and continue to love those left behind. Aunt Gwen

“ So sorry for your loss. Years ago we were neighbors Larry grilled about every night he would toss meat over the fence to our dog. She got so use to it every time we grilled she would bark until you gave her something off the grill
