“ My thoughts and prayers are with the whole family- even though I haven't met any of you- the past three years of meeting with Leslie monthly and hearing about you all - I feel like I know you. Leslie was truly one of a kind and I always looked forward to our meetings and left with a smile on my face. I'll always cherish our friendship.

“ So appropriate that this was shared to me today. My beloved Aunt Leslie died today and this is absolutely true for her. I have never met a more faith filled individual who tried to live her life accordingly. I will miss her terribly, especially as she filled the void left in my life after my own mother's Alzheimer's diagnosis and eventual death. There are so many memories of times with Aunt Leslie - playing games was frequently at the center of it, but really it was just about spending time with friends and family. I was always thrilled when I managed to win a game against her - any game! Scrabble, Canasta, Rummikub, the list goes on and on. I loved that she earned her BSN at the age of 84. The important point being that she EARNED it!

“ When I first moved to Carthage and didn't know anyone except my family, I was sitting in the pew in First Baptist Church and she sent me a note that said; Hello" I am Leslie Nivens" welcome to my world", I sent a note back telling her who I was and she invited me to her house, I enjoyed playing cards with her, and sharing Jesus. My prayers are with her family. Joyce Wiese

“ Will never forget the kindness and games that we always played together with her and my Mom (Alta) and me. I always enjoyed our Bible discussions. She will be truly missed by all her friends. I know GOD will comfort you during this time of sorrow. May GOD bless the family, she was always so proud of each one of you and what you had accomplished. It was always fun to hear about where she was moving next and all the people she would meet and was never a stranger to anyone and always spreading the Words of Jesus thru unique ways.

“ Thank you Leisa for informing me of Leslie's passing.
I met your mom for no more than 10-15 at that motel where she was living while I was traveling thru with family.
It was a brief but grand blessed time.
As I was to leave she blessed me and gave me 2 booklets she had written.
As a devotional penman I use one of her devotions every Sunday over her name.
To serve Him all our days,
