

Leta Mae Asbell

March 22, 1936 - January 22, 2013

Leta Mae Asbell, 76, of Carthage passed away on Tuesday, January 22, 2013, at Freeman West Hospital following a lengthy illness. Leta was born on March 22, 1936 in Kenoma, MO, the daughter of Roy Fischer and Almeta "Bruffet" Fischer. After graduating from Lamar High School, she moved to Carthage in 1955 where she worked at the Drake Hotel. Leta was a homemaker. She was a charter member of the Carthage Evangel Assembly of God Church, where she served for several years as Sunday school teacher, missionette leader and pianist. Leta was also involved with local nursing home ministries. She will be best remembered for her love of piano playing, her passion for her family and her relationship with her Savior Jesus Christ. Leta was married to William Asbell on September 29, 1956 in Jasper, Missouri. Leta is survived by her husband William Asbell of the home, one son, Jerry Asbell, Sr., of Columbia, MO, two daughters, Clea McNary of Bolivar, MO and Sherri Asbell of Carthage, three grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents Roy and Almeta Fischer and one brother, Harold Fischer. Open visitation will be from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Thursday, January 24, 2013 at the Ulmer Funeral Home. A private family service will be at a later date. Online condolences may be sent at www.ulmerfh.com. Arrangements are under the direction of the Ulmer Funeral Home.
