“ I knew Lois and Vernon from Minnesota Bible College, Minneapolis in 1970. Over the years I have lost contact, however I remember both of them fondly. Lois was such a sweet person and I was blessed to know her and Vern. May the Lord comfort Vern and all her family.

“ My deepest sympathy to Lois's family and friends. Lois and I were classmates at Spring Valley High School. I remember her as a kind and caring person with a sweet giggle. So sad to learn of her death. Sincerely, Jill (Reps) Potts

“ Lois was nothing but warm and inviting. It was Christmas 2004. I was looking at a day without my husband with brand new twins and a 4 and 5 year old. She invited and welcomed us to her home to spend the day. She kept me from spending a day with tears but gave me a day of smiles. She was never anything but sweet and loving to me and my children. My thoughts and prayers to her family.

“ Vernon and Rusty, although Lois is not in her earthly body, her memory and spirit will live on through the memories of those who knew her and loved her. She was quiet but could be very mischievous and loved spending time with her friends in all kinds of adventures. I will always be glad that God let our lives touch at MBC and I'm sure everyone she touched are better off to have known her. Our prayers are for your peace and comfort and for your memories of Lois and the real hope of seeing her again sustain you through this sad time. Baskets of love and Prayers, Pam and Ron Christman

“ My heartfelt condolences to your family on the loss of such a beautiful woman. I had the pleasure of working with Lois out of our L & P Pennsylvania branch. Although we never met in person I considered her a close friend and I will miss her gentle sweet voice and reassuring positive personality. She was a woman of deep faith and I'm sure she is with the angels in heaven as we speak.

“Lois had a contagious smile and a quiet way of practical jokes knowing others (especially her husband Vernon) would get the blame. She also loved sharing scripture and receiving hugs.

“One of my favorite memories of Lois was her letting us into her house, Vernon's office, or anywhere else we needed to "decorate" for his birthday. She was always our silent accomplice. She left a permanent impression on my heart with her selfless, giving ways. She showed Jesus to everyone she met. I will miss her beautiful smile and hearing her say "Garsh!"
