

Luke Nugent

October 11, 1998 - March 16, 2013

Luke Nugent, 14, a beloved son, cousin, nephew and friend, chose to take his own life on Saturday, March 16, 2013, at his home in Carl Junction, Mo. He was born on Oct. 11, 1998 in Joplin. He was the only child of Jessica and Mika Nugent. Luke started school in the Webb City school district and attended school in Carthage before moving to the Carl Junction school district. He was an eighth grader at the Carl Junction Junior High. He was base drummer in the Carl Junction Junior High Marching Band. He was also an avid science student and a member of the Lab Rats, a science-oriented club at CJJHS, and the CJJHS Science Club. He was a member of the Student League and helped plan activities for students. He helped plan the recent Jazz 'N' Java at the Junction event at Carl Junction High School. Luke was also involved in Destination Imagination. He will be remembered for his love of mozzarella sticks, colored pancakes, anime and Chuck Norris jokes, and his complete disdain for eggs. He was an aspiring chef who loved trying new recipes. He could frequently be seen in the kitchen with the white chef's hat and coat. He was, by far, the best cook in his household. He loved learning with a passion. Every new piece of knowledge, he wore like a feather in his fedora. He could talk about the sky and lightning for hours and was in constant pursuit of the ultimate punch line. He loved to bring humor to every gathering with family and friends. Luke would champion the cause of those who could not defend themselves. Luke is survived by his parents, Jessica (Thomas) and Mika Nugent, Carl Junction; maternal grandparent Andy and Dina Thomas, and Gloria and Curtis Nidiffer and paternal grandparents Ritta Nugent and Ron Garrett, and Rick Nugent; great-grandparents, Bill Nugent, Olive (Glendenning) Thomas, Henrietta (Lasiter) and Elvie Stark; his maternal aunts and uncles, Jenny and Chris Brust, Carthage; Luke Thomas, Carthage; Tria Thomas, Carthage; Rob and Nancy Gaul, Meriden, Conn.; Eric and Ashley Gaul, New Haven, Conn.; paternal aunts and uncles, Paul and Jaana (Nugent) Peltekian, Burbank, Calif.; Krista Nugent, Jake Nugent and Markus Nugent, all of Hurricane, Utah. Luke adored his cousins like they were his siblings. Cousins include Connor, Ryan, Andi, Colson, Ashlyn, Kristiana, RG4, Autumn, Jorel and Stevie. He was also survived by Tiffany Shores, a lifelong "sister-mom" to Luke, and Chad Camp, who was an invaluable mentor to Luke throughout his life, and many more family and friends who loved and adored him. Services will be held at 4 p.m. Friday, March 22, with a private viewing prior to the service, at Memorial Hall in Carthage. The family asks that donations be made to the Luke Nugent Memorial Fund, P.O. Box 797, Carthage, Mo., in lieu of flowers. Online condolences may be made to www.ulmerfh.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Ulmer Funeral Home.

“ I will always remember Luke and his smile. He was a very sweet and cool boy. I was the school nurse in the 2-3 bldg at Carl. He always was polite and even had a hug or two to spare. I hope he is at peace...

“ What an amazing tribute to Luke. Although it has been a few years since I've spoken to him, I see he hasn't changed much from that sweet natured, funny, full of life, and brilliantly minded third grader I had in my class. He will be missed.

“ Dear family of Luke Nugent, I was a friend of Luke's. He always had a smile and he would brighten up any room he walked (more like waltzed) into a room. I was always happy to see him and his smile. I can not believe he has passed but I will always remember him and I hope you will accept my condolences. I will pray for your family in this time of grief. Sincerely, Faith Fraser Fellow 14 year old and friend

“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Nugent,
I, like many others are saddened by the death of such a precious and talented young man. I wish I had the honor of meeting him.
There are no words to express the loss you are enduring. I'm so sorry.
You are not alone in your grief. Luke has touched many lives around our nation as we ask, "why" our talented young vibrant children take their lives.
I'm sending light and love as you make your way through the stages of your grief.
Warm regards, Patty Huffman

“ Jessica, I am Chad's aunt. We met at Chad & Mary's wedding. I remember thinking how sweet & cute Luke was when I met him! I remember too Chad telling me how smart he was! Because I too lost my child, Jessica....I get what you are going through. Please give yourself all the time you need. Let your family & friends help you. They truly want to. Call me if you need to talk. Love & Prayers!

“ Here is poem given to my Mom by a friend when she was faced with the loss of my sister: I will lend you, for a little time, A child of mine, He said. For you to love the while he lives, And mourn for when he's dead. It may be six or seven years, Or twenty-two or three. But will you, till I call him back, Take care of him for Me? He'll bring his charms to gladden you, And should his stay be brief. You'll have his lovely memories, As solace for your grief. I cannot promise he will stay, Since all from earth return. But there are lessons taught down there, I want this child to learn. I've looked the wide world over, In search for teachers true. And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes, I have selected you. Now will you give him all your love, Nor think the labour vain. Nor hate me when I come To take him home again? I fancied that I heard them say, 'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!' For all the joys Thy child shall bring, The risk of grief we'll run. We'll shelter him with tenderness, We'll love him while we may, And for the happiness we've known, Forever grateful stay. But should the angels call for him, Much sooner than we've planned. We'll brave the bitter grief that comes, And try to understand. By Edgar Albert Guest, © 1929
